THE ELEVEN BLACK MEN OF LIBERTY COUNTY
HOST 21ST ANNUAL SCHOLARSHIP BANQUET

The event will be held at Club Stewart Ballroom on Saturday, March 21. A reception will be held from 6:15pm until 6:45pm and dinner will begin at 7pm. Tickets are currently on sale and will continue until all seats are filled.

"As the President of the Eleven Black Men of Liberty County, Inc. I am humbled and at the same time grateful for the support that our organization continues to receive from not only the community at large but world renowned individuals and community leaders such as our guest speaker DeLisha Milton-Jones," said Barry Chapman, organization President. He further stated that he feels that the organization itself is "rich" because of a quote he once heard that says, "It is not what you have that makes you rich it's how much you give."

The keynote speaker is DeLisha Milton-Jones, a WNBA Champion and Olympic Gold Medalist originally from Liberty County.

"It's indeed a privilege and an honor to be the keynote speaker for the Eleven Black Men. I take a lot of pride in being socially responsible," said Milton-Jones. "Being a mentor is my way of paying it forward. Someone mentored me at different levels of my growth, so it's only right that I give back what's been given to me. Giving back to MY community is a very powerful thing to do because I'm affecting the very byproducts of it. Kids from small towns like ours need visible examples of success so that they can see how real dreams can become."

The Eleven Black Men of Liberty County is a non-profit organization whose vision statement is "To become the county's strongest, most self-reliant volunteer organization focused on education, enrichment and empowerment for our young men."

"Everyone at some point in time has experienced setbacks in some type of way or form. The first instinct for some people is to stop and reflect on those setbacks. Instead of doing that, you must keep moving forward and keep focusing on the future," said Philip Williams, a former Transcender (a mentee) of the Eleven Black Men.

"On behalf of our organization we are proud to have the support of the community and Champions like DeLisha whose presences and contributions help us to give and continue to give to assist those in need throughout our community and beyond," said Chapman, organization President.

Tickets are $40 per person and are available by calling Mitchell Boston at 912-977-6841 or Andrew Williams at 912-977-3293. Attire is semi-formal.

Brighten Your Business for the Great American Cleanup

This spring a thousand local citizens will join Keep Liberty Beautiful in The Great American Cleanup, a national spring community cleanup. The goal is to beautify our community. Litter is ugly and it hurts sales! Remember: retail sales increase for attractive businesses!

Brightening your Business is easy! Collect any litter outside in your frontage, right of way, and parking area, or rake up leaves and limbs or clean windows, doors, and exterior, or even plant a flower or two!

It's as easy as 1 2 3 ...

- 1 - pick a date the week before your city's Citywide Cleanup Day (call or check web)
- 2 - contact Keep Liberty Beautiful to confirm and to borrow cleanup supplies (litter reachers, safety vests, work gloves and trash bags)
Supplies can be returned afterwards to KLB or to your local city hall.
- 3 - send us your info—date, who helped and activity--- and a photo!

Participating businesses will be recognized in the Coastal Courier and KLB's website and Facebook and at KLB's annual Volunteer Appreciation on May 28th. Participants will also be eligible for Win-dex Awards!

So Join Us and Brighten Your Business This Spring!

Weekly Word to the Wise

By: Charlene Parlett

I know a lot of us struggle with networking events. I often see the same people at Chamber luncheons and Business After Hours. And even more common is seeing the same people TALKING to the same people. We feel more comfortable with those we have already developed a relationship with. We need to get past that insecurity. Regardless of how big the internet becomes, the availability of new and exciting advertising methods, social media, and promotional goodies, the best way to get new customers is to go meet them! You probably sell a product or service that a lot of chamber members could benefit from. You may have competitors that do just as good work as you do. You may even be a little more expensive. In every survey I've ever seen, the #1 reason people return over and over to a business is NEVER price! The top 3 are almost always 1)customer service/relationship with the people, 2) quality of work, 3)convenience. At a networking event you get the chance to meet business owners, managers, elected officials, and staff of successful businesses in an atmosphere that encourages sharing what you do; it's the first step to building that relationship.

The family sacrifices and serves too. The Soldier, Sailor, Airman, Coastie or Marine who serves doesn't do so alone-beside him is a loving family that have needs that you can help with! United Military Care is here for them but we need your help. It takes money to have an office for them to come too, a food pantry to give supplies from and more. Your gift will make a huge difference and bring about a lot of smiles.
